Protect Your Identity!

Practical ways to keep you and your information safe!

Identity theft is one of the fastest growing crimes in America. The U.S. Federal Trade Commission received 250,854 complaints about identity theft during 2010 - nearly one-fifth of the entire number of complaints received by the agency. For the 11th year in a row, it was the subject most consumers complained about.

Dumpster diving has been popular for many thieves. Some are being rewarded for their efforts by getting enough of your private information to open new accounts and credit cards in your name with a different address. DO NOT throw away papers that contain account numbers, passwords or security codes. Shred them first! Invest in a personal shredder. They can be purchased at any office supply store.

Be sure when using your credit card information online that you are making transactions on a secure site. When typing your credit card number on the order page, there should be an "s" after "http" in the URL. That indicates that the site uses encryption technology which scrambles information, like your credit card number, to protect against hackers. Also look for a closed padlock icon on the lower right of your browser screen.

Email scammers often pose as financial institutions and send messages alerting you to possible account tampering, etc. You may be directed to a website to change your login credentials. The site they send you to is not legitimate, and you could wind-up providing them with everything they need to gain access to your accounts. Never click a link and supply your personal information, no matter how real the email looks. When in doubt, call the financial. Unison will never request personal information via email.

Carefully review your monthly account and credit card statements for any transactions you don't recognize. Act immediately if you see anything suspicious.

Get a FREE copy of your credit report once a year from www.annualcreditreport.com. Look for anything that appears incorrect or fraudulent. Contact us at 920-766-6000 if you find any mistakes. We will assist with correcting any errors.

Savings Bonds... Big changes in the New Year!

What is changing?

The U.S. Department of Treasury will end sales of paper Series EE and I Savings Bonds through over-the-counter transactions, including financial institutions and mail-in orders, as of the close of business on December 31, 2011.

After December 31, 2011, purchases will only be available electronically at www.treasurydirect.gov.

Please contact us at 920-766-6000 with questions regarding this change.

Password Protection Creating the perfect password!

From email to online banking, it seems like we need a password for everything nowadays! Here are a few tips to help you decide on a password that will keep your personal information safe and secure.

Add passwords to all accounts and never use your mother's maiden name, your birth date or anything "expected". Make up new words with at least 8 characters that don't relate to you personally in any way. Keep all of your passwords in a safe place.

Be creative - replace letters with numbers, ALWAYS use at least one uppercase letter and one symbol. A combination of letters, numbers and characters is best. For example: an okay password would be "jellyfish", a better password would be "jelly22fish" and an EXCELLENT password would be "J3lly22Fish".

To test the strength of your password, go to our website www.unisoncu.org/checking/services/itsme247.aspx and type it in. Just another way we want to help you protect your identity!
